they are entirely without patriotic instincts, must regard the presence of the English settlers as a constant insult to their country, and, under those circumstances, to teach them that they have a substantial grievance so long as a share in the Government of the Colony is denied to them, seems at best a hazardous experiment. This, however, is said to have been the tendency of Sir JOHN PONS HENNESSY's administration, and its results did not conduce to the peace and good order of the Colony. "It will be observed that those who saw all this before and said so were guilty of a 'bitterly hostile criticism,' that the 'indiscretions' of the Governor were turned by his opponents to 'almost dishonourable account,' and we are further told that though the results of his administration 'had been many times as pernicious, they would not have warranted the indiscriminate abuse heaped upon his head; abuses which extended even to the details of his private life, and found a protest in matters where his conduct in reality merited sympathy and admiration.' We are not concerned now to defend the character of those who differed from Sir JOHN PONS HENNESSY, but surely if our contemporary had been acquainted with the 'details of private life' and the manner in which they were brought before the public, he would, out of charity to the subject of his remarks, have refrained from any reference to such an unpleasant subject. However, after all these years of Yokohama contemporary has at last arrived at the sound conclusion that Sir JOHN PONS HENNESSY's administration was a mistake all through, even though still maintaining that those who arrived at the same conclusion earlier in the day were bitterly hostile and unfair.

We (Japan Mail) note the arrival in Tokio, for the purpose of the Japanese Government, of two French officers, Captain H. Berthaut and Lieutenant E. de Villard. Captain Berthaut, who is a son of the well-known General Berthaut, formerly Minister of War, served for nearly ten years on the Headquarters Staff of the French Army, where he acquired experience which will be invaluable in his present position. His office in Japan will be that of military adviser, and it is no doubt that he will be able to render the Government most useful assistance in arranging the various details of organization, mobilization, and so forth, connected with the new scheme of army augmentation. Lieutenant de Villard is an officer of Light Infantry, and a distinguished graduate of the Ecole de Guerre at Paris. He will be attached to the Ministry of War, in addition to the two French officers, the Government is also sending to France for the services of Mr. Loret, of the Conservatoire at Paris, who assumes the direction of the military school, and Mr. Loret, who will be attached to the School of Arms.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

TIENTSIN, 23rd November.

Peace negotiations seem to be entirely broken off. The French demands, which were believed to have been reduced to very moderate dimensions, are, it would seem, as follows:

- 1.—To accept the May Convention.
- 2.—France to wait indemnity.
- 3.—France to occupy Kiang and Tamsui for five years.
- 4.—China to make ample apology for Langson.

The Chinese have flatly refused to entertain any such terms, as they claim that they are in the right in the Langson affair, and believe that five years' occupation of Kiang and Tamsui by the French means practically surrendering Formosa.

It is believed that the Chinese Northern Fleet means to set on the offensive. It is now partially collected by Europeans.

LOSS OF THE AMERICAN GUNBOAT "ALERT."

The U.S. gunboat Alert has been burned at sea. The crew were saved and have been brought to Pernambuco.

[The Alert is at present at Canton, and we hear there is no other vessel of the name home in the U.S. Navy. It is possible the name referred to may be the Alert, which left here at the end of August last for Moenshagen. If her stay at Moenshagen was short, she might have been in the neighbourhood of Brazil by this time.—Ed. D.]

HANKOW.

15th November.

We have had very miserable weather here during the past few days; very heavy downpours of rain. It will be bad for the crops which are now in the field, and it is very likely to clear up on Monday and Tuesday next unless it rains again.

A fire broke out in a village last night, situated a little above Hankow and burned for about eight hours. Nobody seems to know how it originated. A large quantity of property has been destroyed. The value is beginning to rise, but we expect it will fall again.—Courier Correspondent.

NEW HONGKONG.

12th November.

On Sunday morning, 9th instant, the U.S. gunboat Alert arrived from Tientsin, bringing a telegram which reached us to say that the Alert was on the way for the purpose of wintering with us. It is very gratifying to hear of the arrival of the Alert, and we are all glad to hear that the vessel is on its way to us.
